Essential Lunenburg

Be awed by spectacular sites around every corner. Brimming with local tales, folklore, 18th-century and Victorian architecture, your hour-plus walk includes a stop at the stunningly beautiful, St. John's Anglican Church, Canada's second-oldest Protestant Church. Starting at the Castle on the Hill, Lunenburg Academy, and finishing at our colourful working waterfront, there's no finer way to discover Lunenburg.

Haunted Lunenburg

Many say Lunenburg has more spirits, superstitions and ghosts than any other place in Nova Scotia. Under the darkened sky, you can grab a lantern and let our seasoned guides fill your head with tales of hauntings, hangings and eerie sightings. Visit Hillcrest Cemetery, one of the oldest Protestant burial sites in Canada. Amid the shadows and headstones, you'll want to watch for a vision of tragic Sophia . . . if you dare! (Nightly)
